This years competition was exceptionally close and the standard was very high. Almost every game hang in the balance and hard decisions had to be taken by the judges.

In the end there was very little separating those that attended...any one of them could have won the competition.

Not only was the technical standard high but the show of sportsmanship and 'scouting spirit' stood out too.

Thanks to the 17th for hosting the event and keeping us 'refreshed', to the judges who had a very difficult job, to the leaders and parents who helped out and most importantly of all to the Scouts who made the competition run so well.
